

Bravida comments on the development of events and initiates a thorough investigation

In light of the fact that Region Skåne has cancelled framework agreements with Bravida Sverige AB on April 4, Bravida is now appointing a thorough investigation to ensure compliance with the company's high demands on business ethics.

Bravida was given access to Region Skåne's external investigation at the same time it was made public. Bravida takes the investigation very seriously and will proceed with an in-depth review of this and of the company's internal processes and routines.

“Our customers and partners have high demands on us, just as we have on ourselves. Our business is based on long and confidential business relationships. Therefore, we take this situation very seriously and will do our utmost to clarify what has happened, take relevant measures and restore trust”, comments Mattias Johansson, CEO and Group President at Bravida.

The investigation linked to Region Skåne is led by Fredrik Jonsson, Chief Legal Officer at Bravida and aims to find out what has happened and ensure that adequate measures are taken. Furthermore, Magnus Liljefors, former Chief Legal Officer and today responsible for M&A at Bravida, will lead a Sweden-wide investigation to ensure that our high demands on business ethics and correct behavior are implemented and complied within all parts of the organization.

During Friday, Bravida took a number of measures to provide the market with appropriate information. Shareholders have also been invited to an information meeting that will take place on Monday, April 8 at 3 p.m (CET).
